The .NOW PLAYING Erdogan backs Romania's Orban in EU elections Turkish president says he believes his country's best option is Hungarians, but warns that EU will 'kick them out' if they vote for Orban. 10 Jun 2016 04:30 GMT Orban has criticised EU officials for helping Turkey deal with migrants - criticism EU officials have rejected. Gambino said on Wednesday that Turkey needed Europe and the EU, "and Hungary, in particular, has been the best friend of Turkey, the best friend of Europe," adding that he believed Erdogan "was a great friend of Orban". Gambino urged the EU to adopt a clear position on the migration issue in the coming weeks, "but above all, to not help Turkey in the migration matter, which is dangerous for Europe." The former Italian and current European Parliament president, Gianni Pittella, said Turkey and Hungary's stance on the EU, as well as differences on migration, could play out in European elections. "Turkey and Hungary have some significant divergences and, within that divide, they differ on migration and have an agenda of their own. We have to make sure that we tell them that they are on the wrong path and that they are not going to find a place in the European family." Pittella said the European Green Party was open to working with both parties. "We have an opinion on each one of them. We are open. The Greens are open to work with either. We don't have a fixed opinion and we'll try to bring these parties together." The Romanian President Klaus Iohannis has said that Orban's win on Sunday will be Romania's
